Blest Art will be visiting St. Mary on behalf of the Christian families in Bethlehem, Palestine, June 8 & 9. For centuries, the Christians in and around Bethlehem have earned a living by carving religious olive wood art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Less than 1% of the population in the Holy Land is Christians. Blest Art Inc helps the struggling Christian families of Bethlehem by marketing their artwork in the United States. Due to this work many Christian families maintain their livelihood and their ancestral homes in the land of our Lord.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate Pentecost Sunday. What a beautiful way to culminate the Easter Season and all the graces we have received throughout the season of Lent and fifty days of Easter.

We are into graduation and ordination season. I look forward to seeing lots of people out and about this weekend celebrating graduations. Next weekend, I look forward to attending the Holy Hour on Thursday at Newman Center and the Diaconate and Priesthood ordinations on Friday and Saturday at the Cathedral. Then Sunday, the First Masses of Ranil Weerackoon and Jonah Brox.

It is nice to have Ranil here at the rectory now. He will soon go to his five-day priesthood retreat, so please keep him in your prayers this next week.

I had a nice wedding weekend in NYC. I stayed in Middletown Queens with a former Polish seminarian who left the seminary and married and has six children. Their neighborhood is very quiet and clean (he said the mafia keep it safe). They have two children left at home and were very kind to make room for me and show me such hospitality. Five of their children came to be with their mother on Mother's Day and we all went out for Chinese. All their children are very well educated and musically gifted with three of them working for Catholic parishes in music ministry. They all play chess very well so I enjoyed games with all ages. They do not have a TV so they are readers, well educated speaking Polish at home, except around visitors like me. The Sophomore was focused on passing an AP European History four-hour exam. The youngest in 4th grade played the piano masterfully.

My nephew is in the advertising business, and he puts together videos for media. His wedding was unique. Since he married a Jewish girl, the wedding had elements of Catholicism and Judaism. I liked when seven people spoke about various aspects of marriage. The weather was rain, sun, rain, sun and then fortunately their wedding was on a sunny day. I learned rehearsal dinners, hotels and indoor Padel are very pricey in Brooklyn.

Although things are expensive in Brooklyn, I found some wonderful bargains: NY pizza, subway rides, tennis and walking in the parks, Eucharistic adoration in Catholic Churches, Mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral, breakfast bagels and Deli sandwiches (and of course free lodging with friends).

I had dinner with three of my NY classmates on May 13, the 35th anniversary of their ordination. It was a very special reunion and those who couldn't attend I was also able to enjoy a phone call with. Their life is much harder and more stressful than "the Good Life" in Nebraska.

I am reading Fathered By God, by John Eldredge. It talks about how God our Father takes such intimate care of his own. The first full day, I went looking for a Catholic Church to spend a few hours praying in. About three blocks from the hotel where everyone was staying, I found an open church. Immediately I noticed they were having Eucharistic adoration on their main altar, with lovely sacred piano music gently played. I felt the love of God the father in leading me to this oasis.

Have a Blessed Pentecost. FBC
